CAMP

Please arrive at camp early and ready to ride by 9.50 am.

Packed Lunch will be provided for the camp members.

Ensure that your horse/pony is up to date with their flu vaccination.

Horses and ponies need to be reasonably fit and please ensure that they are well shod.

Tack must be clean and please ensure that it correctly fits the horse/pony.

Please ensure that you have a hay net and water available for when your horse/pony is tied up at lunchtime. Horse/pony will be in your trailer / lorry when not being ridden.

If anyone needs to stay over at camp, there is limited space for turnout. Parent/ guardian to be responsible for staying with the member. Please contact Geoff Monk directly to book in. The cost of staying over will be extra to camp fees and is to be settled with Mostyn Farm Ride.

DRESS CODE

Riders should be neat and tidy- shirt and tie or branch polo shirt, red sweat shirt, cream, beige, black, navy jods or breeches, waterproof jacket, jodhpur boots, half chaps (optional) or long riding boots, gloves, correctly fitting body protector is compulsory for XC. Hats must be pony club approved and tagged. No fixed peaks when jumping. Jockey skull caps are recommended. Hair should be in a hair net if long and tied so it is above shoulder height.
