148cm Full-Up (LHC) Mylestown Hero – 2009 Fleabitten Grey Gelding

Highly experienced and extremely honest competition pony for a knowledgeable, capable rider. Hero is a genuine, talented all-rounder with a fantastic attitude. My daughter has chosen to focus on showjumping, but similarly he has also been a fantastic Pony Club partner and has all the bravery and ability to make a fabulous eventer.

Competing is where Hero really excels. He loves the atmosphere and occasion of showjumping. Is not fazed by fillers, sound or busy venues and has a fantastic attitude when in the ring. He is naturally fast against the clock and loves a jump off. He has show-jumped successfully in Ireland up to 110cm however we now feel he is best suited to competing at 90cm – 1m, where he remains highly competitive. He has relatively few British Showjumping points, giving his next rider an excellent opportunity to progress with him through the relevant classes.

We bought Hero two years ago for our then 12 year old daughter to enjoy Pony Club, JFS and NSEA, while also dipping our toes into British Showjumping. In a relatively short time, he has taken her to some fantastic venues and achieved some excellent results, including:

- Pony Club Spring Barrier Finals, Addington (placed 3rd in a class of 105)
- Cricklands BS Schools Nationals
- Blue Chip Winter Champs, Addington
- NSEA Hurst Champs, Hickstead International Arena
- BS Academy Champ, Stoneleigh representing Sussex County

Hero has a varied life. He is regularly schooled in flatwork; he is great to hack in open spaces both alone and with others and enjoys the gallops, cross country and Arena Eventing. He has been to numerous stay aways and Pony Camps around the country and just generally like to be out and about.

He is good to catch, load and travel. He is excellent for the farrier but requires sedation for clipping. He likes a straightforward routine and prefers to live out – but he is very comfortable in a stable when needed. Hero requires individual turn out.

£11,500 ono, including tack and rugs. Home is priority so negotiable for right fit. Daughter moving onto horses.

'GOLDIE' 12.2hh Welsh B 18 year old Gelding.

Fun Pony Club all-rounder. Perfect for Dressage, pole work, mounted games, hacking. Also loves bareback and bridleless!

... can jump/will jump but can be spooky and stop. Having said that has produced very calm clear rounds at times. Has jumped very little in the last 2/3 years due to it not being my daughters favourite discipline. Last jumped competitively at the Area 13 mini champs 2025, placed 8th 60cm.

Loves attention, never kicks, or bites, will be pampered all day. Loads and travels well. Easy to catch.

Doesn't buck, bolt or rear but is forward going and can be spooky.

Lots of highlights:

- 🏆 Winner: In House Dressage League 2025/2026 PC70
- 🥈 Reserve Champion Sunshine Tour 2025 Intro Dressage
- 8th place Area 13 Mini Champs PC60cm Showjumping 2025
- Placed 4th and 7th at Pony Club Regional Championships 2024 PC70 Dressage
- 5th Place Area 13 Mini Champs PC60cm Showjumping 2024

Has won too many unaffiliated Dressage competitions to mention at Intro and Prelim.

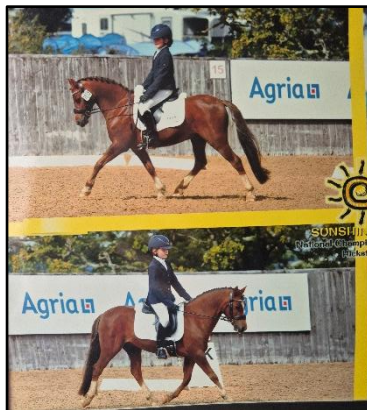

Has been on Pony Club Mounted Games teams for several years. Most recently attended the Southern Zones Final as a Senior Team member 2026.

Goldie would be perfect for a child wanting to do lots of dressage, flatwork/pole work rallies, hacking and mounted games. He'd be successful in showing too.

He has been with us for over 4 years since my daughter was 7 and has given her a lot of fun.

More 2nd pony than lead rein/first ridden.
