February

Colraine Rally

Our first Colraine Rally on the 17th was a success. Fun was had by all members of all levels, despite the not-so-great weather. Thank you to Tamsyn for the excellent teaching and well done to those who braved the rain. Hopefully we have better weather for the next one on April 4th.

Demo Riders

A huge thank you to all the riders who rode for the mock coaching exam. You know who you are. We will need some on the 9th of April as well if anyone is interested. Please look at the website for further information.

Flatwork Rally at Penewin

Thank you to Caroline Wills for a brilliant flatwork lesson involving theory and developing understanding helping members to progress up the exams. Also lovely to see some new faces, well done all.

Health and Safety reminder

As we move into the new season, please have a look at your back protectors to make sure they are BETA, 2018 or above, also check your hat is compliant and pink tagged, all information can be found at pcuk.org. See instructors or Helen D for tags.

Parents Information Evening

Thank you to all who attended, I think the chips went down well! Hopefully any questions were answered but do not hesitate to contact anyone on either the junior or main committee if you have any further questions.

Our Bring and Buy sale raised an amazing £52.50 which was donated to the Hugs foundation in Bodmin!
